Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:See Schedule O*2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 7,370 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 4,567)

Recreation/Social Wellness - People who maintain their social network and support systems are better able to manage stress and the challenges that come with aging. Recreation programs combat loneliness and isolation, which are linked to poor health outcomes that include depression, high blood pressure, cognitive decline, and an increased likelihood of needing long-term care. The Center offered almost 81,000 hours in programming designed for social connection. By participating in Center programs that support social connections, older adults are more likely to have people to turn to in times of need or crisis. In an FY24 survey, 93% of respondents agreed that being part of The Center has helped them develop a more positive outlook on life.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 59,710 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 56,216)

Fitness/Physical Wellness - The Center offered over 134,00 hours of fitness and wellness programs and resources this year, including 40 recurring high-quality, senior-appropriate fitness programs designed to improve or maintain the physical health of community participants. In a recent survey of Center participants, 86% of respondents reported they felt better physically because they attended programs at The Center and 72% said it helped them maintain their independence. Fitness and wellness programs are designed to meet a wide range of ability levels and preserve or increase functional fitness.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 4,489 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Volunteer Opportunities - Clinical studies indicate that older adults who volunteer their time and skills are happier, have an increased sense of well-being, enjoy broader social networks, and live longer. In this fiscal year, 361 Center volunteers contributed 40,155 hours of service at the Center and at 36 nonprofits throughout our community. According to the Virginia Office on Volunteerism and Community Services, the economic impact of these volunteer service hours equates to over 18 full-time positions. With limited paid staffing, The Center relies on volunteers to provide over 50% of the labor required to run the organization; this helps to keep the costs of programs and services low while also reinforcing a greater sense of community among Center stakeholders.

4d Other program services (Describe on Schedule O.)(Expenses $ 2,557,643 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 281,381)4e Total program service expenses 2,629,212

Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Since its founding in 1960, Senior Center, Inc. (doing business as "The Center") has pursued its mission to positively impact the lives of older adults in our community by creating opportunities for healthy aging through social engagement, physical well-being, civic involvement, creativity, and lifelong learning. The CDC considers the aging of the U.S. population one of the major public health challenges of the 21st century; increasing the number of older adults who live high-quality, productive, and independent lives is a public health priority. Research suggests that older adults who participate in programs like those offered by The Center are more likely to successfully age in place and incur lower health care costs. In FY24 (April 1, 2023-March 31, 2024) The Center provided over 10,644 programs, classes, events, and trips to increase older adults' health, resiliency, and independence.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - All Other Accomplishments

Lifelong Learning/Intellectual Wellness - This vital component of holistic health enables older adults to both expand their knowledge and skills and share their knowledge with others. In this fiscal year, The Center offered over 16,000 hours of lifelong learning activities. From World War II Discussion group to Italian for Travelers, local seniors can connect with others while gaining a broader understanding of themselves and the world. Lifelong learning can also increase memory and thinking skills, help develop coping strategies as life changes, and limit or slow cognitive decline.

Arts, Performing Arts, and Crafts - Global studies link arts participation with positive cognitive, social, and behavioral outcomes across the lifespan; its proven effectiveness and cost-effectiveness as a health promotion strategy offers incredible potential for community health. The Center offered over 18,000 hours of arts programming. Arts programming offers instruction and provides performance opportunities that encourage self-expression and creativity. Research shows that participatory arts can also benefit cognitive function and memory, increase social interaction, and reduce stress.

Partner Organization Programs -The Center regularly partners with other community nonprofits to share limited resources and enhance the delivery of physical, intellectual, and/or social support services. Through partner programming, community participants can access a greater variety of services and activities that align with our region's public health priorities. Partner program collaborations include Piedmont Master Gardeners, Wednesday Music Club, Osher Lifelong Learning Institute, Charlottesville Climate Collaborative, University of Virginia Health System, Sentara Healthcare, Alzheimer's Association, American Red Cross, Jefferson Area Board of Aging (JABA), AARP, Charlottesville Ballet, Virginia Festival of the Book, and American Parkinson's Disease Association. The Center is also a committed participant in the Charlottesville Area Alliance, working with other local senior-focused organizations to address aging issues and promote and age-friendly community.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990

The Board of Directors Finance and Audit Committee reviews the Form 990 and ensure its accuracy before it is filed. The Form 990 is provided to the entire Board of Directors for their review prior to filing with IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

New Board members sign a document acknowledging the review and understanding and adherence to our conflict of interest policy.

Additionally, the President and Executive Director when preparing Board agendas consider if there are any potential conflicts of interest that may arise.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official

The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Senior Center, Inc. is charged with the responsibility of making recommendation regarding the salary of the Executive Director. In fulfilling this responsibility, the Committee considers a number of related factors, including evaluating the quality of performance. The Committee, consisting entirely of independent individuals, conducts an informal evaluation of the Executive Director's performance as needed, and a formal evaluation, which has been developed by the Executive Committee, in April of each year. In preparation for the formal evaluation, the Director gives the committee a written report of accomplishments and identifies strong points and any area(s) where improvement is needed. In addition to the Committee's review of performance, each member of the Board of Directors completes an anonymous evaluation of the Executive Director, which is tabulated by the Chair of the Executive Committee. The Chair of that committee and the President of the Board of Directors, if different, meet with the Executive Director for a formal evaluation. The findings of the evaluation are shared with the Board, which then confirms or adjusts the salary increase.

To arrive at fair compensation, the committee reviews periodically the salary ranges of nonprofit organizations in the area, including use of independent salary surveys, compares where we are on the scale, and then recommends to the Board any compensation adjustment. It is The Center's belief that fair and just compensation is in the best interest of The Center as a retention and recruitment strategy. In determining the salary for the current Executive Director, much consideration is given to his vision for the future of the Center, his ability to translate that vision into long-range planning, and a track record of leadership qualities needed to carry out and sustain the vision. Minutes of Committee meetings are kept to ensure contemporaneous substantiation is documented.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Process for Officers

Currently the Organization does not have any employees who meet the definition of a key employee and no officers, other than the Executive Director, receive compensation. If this changes, the same process as that used for determining the compensation of the Executive Director will be used.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Governing Documents Disclosure Explanation

Center Bylaws, which include our conflict of interest policy, are available and are circulated to anyone who requests them. Our annual audit and Form 990 are also on our website and are made available upon request.
